GiPA Group strengthens its organization in the UK

As of the 1st January 2017, Quentin Le Hetet has been appointed General Manager of GiPA UK.

Quentin began working for the GiPA Group in Paris in 2013, having previously worked as a consultant for KPMG Consulting. In 2014 he relocated to GiPA UK, and has been living and working in London ever since. In his time there Quentin has gained a strong understanding of the UK automotive aftermarket, working with some of the UK's leading vehicle manufacturers; parts manufacturers and distributors; and lubricant and tyre companies. Prior to his latest appointment, Quentin was in charge of international business development in several countries, including Algeria, Morocco, South Africa, Turkey, and Ukraine.
